'Number of Students Who Began the Program' means the number of students who began a program who were scheduled to complete the program within 100% of the published program length within the reporting calendar year and excludes all students who cancelled during the cancellation period.

'Students Available for Graduation' is the number of students who began the program minus the number of students who have died, been incarcerated, or been called to active military duty.

'Number of On-time Graduates' is the number of students who completed the program within 100% of the published program length within the reporting calendar year.

'On-time Completion Rate' is the number of on-time graduates divided by the number of students available for graduation.

'150% Graduates' is the number of students who completed the program within 150% of the program length (includes on-time graduates).

'150% Completion Rate' is the number of students who completed the program in the reported calendar year within 150% of the published program length, including on-time graduates, divided by the number of students available for graduation.

'Graduates Available for Employment' means the number of graduates minus the number of graduates unavailable for employment.

'Graduates Unavailable for Employment' means the graduates who, after graduation, die, become incarcerated, are called to active military duty, are international students that leave the United States or do not have a visa allowing employment in the United States, or are continuing their education in an accredited or bureau-approved postsecondary institution.

'Graduates Employed in the Field' means graduates who beginning within six months after a student completes the applicable educational program are gainfully employed, whose employment has been reported, and for whom the institution has documented verification of employment. For occupations for which the state requires passing an examination, the six months period begins after the announcement of the examination results for the first examination available after a student completes an applicable educational program.

'Placement Rate Employed in the Field' is calculated by dividing the number of graduates gainfully employed in the field by the number of graduates available for employment.

'Number of Graduates Taking Exam' is the number of graduates who took the first available exam in the reported calendar year.

'First Available Exam Date' is the date for the first available exam after a student completed a program.

'Passage Rate' is calculated by dividing the number of graduates who passed the exam by the number of graduates who took the reported licensing exam.

'Number Who Passed First Available Exam' is the number of graduates who took and passed the first available licensing exam after completing the program.

'Salary' is as reported by graduate or graduate's employer.

'No Salary Information Reported' is the number of graduates for whom, after making reasonable attempts, the school was not able to obtain salary information.

Student's Right To Cancel

A student may cancel their enrollment at any time. Requests to begin the cancellation and refund process must be made prior to the expiration of a 365-day term from date of enrollment. See Section F – Withdrawal and Refund Policy for complete details.

The request to cancel their enrollment must be dated or postmarked prior to the expiration of the 365-day term. From the time of cancellation of the course, the student's course access is immediately terminated. Students who withdraw from the program will be ineligible for any testing or certification after the time of termination.

AGI provides for a full refund if the student has demonstrated that they have studied the course and attests that the Gunsmithing Course content does not equip them with the Design, Function, and Repair knowledge to become a Certified Gunsmith and is subject to the following conditions:

Requests to begin the cancellation and refund process must be made prior to the expiration of a 365-day term from date of enrollment. The request must be dated or postmarked prior to the expiration of the 365-day term.

The Cancellation process begins on the date the written or emailed notice of cancellation is received by this institute at 351 Second Street, Napa CA 94559. Refunds will be paid within 30 days of cancellation unless the cancellation occurs after the institution has mailed the first lesson and materials but prior to your receipt of those documents. In such cases the institution shall make the refund within 30 days after receipt of the returned course materials. This Institution shall transmit all lessons and other materials to the student if the student (a) has fully paid for the educational program; and (b) after having received the first lesson and initial materials, requests in writing that all of the material be sent. If the institution transmits the balance of the material as the student requests, the institution shall remain obligated to provide the other educational services it agreed to provide, such as responses to student inquiries, student and faculty interaction, and evaluation and comment on lessons submitted by the student.

In the event the student requests a refund, all of the following conditions must be met:

- The student has not passed their first test within the course material
- The student purchased or enrolled in the course less than one year (365 days) from the date of refund request

- The student returns all course materials and any auxiliary course materials sent to them by AGI

If all of these conditions have been met, the student will reach out to their Student Advisor to begin the refund process.

If the student requests a refund and withdraws from the American Gunsmithing Institute courses that they enrolled in, they will be prohibited from further enrollment unless the student appeals to the Director of Admissions. After the student submits the application, the Director of Admissions will review the application and determine if the student's appeal warrants readmission/reenrollment. If accepted back into the program, the formerly dropped student will be required to pay a $197 reenrollment fee. To contact the Director of Admissions the student will call 1-800-797-0867 for more information.

From the time of withdrawal all student access, testing, and any other privileges granted by the American Gunsmithing Institute will be revoked immediately, and the student will no longer be on the course path to becoming an AGI Certified Gunsmith.

Student's Right To Cancel

Student's Right To Cancel

A student may cancel their enrollment at any time. Requests to begin the cancellation and refund process must be made prior to the expiration of a 365-day term from date of enrollment.

The request to cancel their enrollment must be dated or postmarked prior to the expiration of the 365-day term. From the time of cancellation of the course, the student's course access is immediately terminated. Students who withdraw from the program will be ineligible for any testing or certification after the time of termination.

AGI provides for a full refund if the student has demonstrated that they have studied the course and attests that the Gunsmithing Course content does not equip them with the Design, Function, and Repair knowledge to become a Certified Gunsmith and is subject to the following conditions:

Requests to begin the cancellation and refund process must be made prior to the expiration of a 365-day term from date of enrollment. The request must be dated or postmarked prior to the expiration of the 365-day term.

The Cancellation process begins on the date the written or emailed notice of cancellation is received by this institute at 351 Second Street, Napa CA 94559. Refunds will be paid within 30 days of cancellation unless the cancellation occurs after the institution has mailed the first lesson and materials but prior to your receipt of those documents. In such cases the institution shall make the refund within 30 days after receipt of the returned course materials. This Institution shall transmit all lessons and other materials to the student if the student (a) has fully paid for the educational program; and (b) after having received the first lesson and initial materials, requests in writing that all of the material be sent. If the institution transmits the balance of the material as the student requests, the institution shall remain obligated to provide the other educational services it agreed to provide, such as responses to student inquiries, student and faculty interaction, and evaluation and comment on lessons submitted by the student.

In the event the student requests a refund, all of the following conditions must be met:

The student has not passed their first test within the course material

The student has not consumed more than 10% of the course material

The student purchased or enrolled in the course less than one year (365 days) from the date of refund request

If all of these conditions have been met, the student will reach out to their Student Advisor to begin the refund process.

For online delivered course programs any course materials that were physically provided to the student up until the time of withdrawal will remain the property of the student. From the time of withdrawal all student access, testing, and any other privileges granted by the American Gunsmithing Institute will be revoked immediately, and the student will no longer be on the course path to becoming an AGI Certified Gunsmith.

- ‘Graduates Employed in the Field’ means graduates who beginning within six months after a student completes the applicable educational program are gainfully employed, whose employment has been reported, and for whom the institution has documented verification of employment. For occupations for which the state requires passing an examination, the six months period begins after the announcement of the examination results for the first examination available after a student completes an applicable educational program.
- ‘Placement Rate Employed in the Field’ is calculated by dividing the number of graduates gainfully employed in the field by the number of graduates available for employment.
- ‘Number of Graduates Taking Exam’ is the number of graduates who took the first available exam in the reported calendar year.
- ‘First Available Exam Date’ is the date for the first available exam after a student completed a program.
- ‘Passage Rate’ is calculated by dividing the number of graduates who passed the exam by the number of graduates who took the reported licensing exam.
- ‘Number Who Passed First Available Exam’ is the number of graduates who took and passed the first available licensing exam after completing the program.
- ‘Salary’ is as reported by graduate or graduate's employer.
- ‘No Salary Information Reported’ is the number of graduates for whom, after making reasonable attempts, the school was not able to obtain salary information.

Student's Right To Cancel

Student's Right To Cancel

A student may cancel their enrollment at any time. Requests to begin the cancellation and refund process must be made prior to the expiration of a 365-day term from date of enrollment. See Section F – Withdrawal and Refund Policy for complete details.

The request to cancel their enrollment must be dated or postmarked prior to the expiration of the 365-day term. From the time of cancellation of the course, the student's course access is immediately terminated. Students who withdraw from the program will be ineligible for any testing or certification after the time of termination.

AGI provides for a full refund if the student has demonstrated that they have studied the course and attests that the Gunsmithing Course content does not equip them with the Design, Function, and Repair knowledge to become a Certified Gunsmith and is subject to the following conditions:

Requests to begin the cancellation and refund process must be made prior to the expiration of a 365-day term from date of enrollment. The request must be dated or postmarked prior to the expiration of the 365-day term.

The Cancellation process begins on the date the written or emailed notice of cancellation is received by this institute at 351 Second Street, Napa CA 94559. Refunds will be paid within 30 days of cancellation unless the cancellation occurs after the institution has mailed the first lesson and materials but prior to your receipt of those documents. In such cases the institution shall make the refund within 30 days after receipt of the returned course materials. This Institution shall transmit all lessons and other materials to the student if the student (a) has fully paid for the educational program; and (b) after having received the first lesson and initial materials, requests in writing that all of the material be sent. If the institution transmits the balance of the material as the student requests, the institution shall remain obligated to provide the other educational services it agreed to provide, such as responses to student inquiries, student and faculty interaction, and evaluation and comment on lessons submitted by the student.

In the event the student requests a refund, all of the following conditions must be met:

The student has not passed their first test within the course material

The student purchased or enrolled in the course less than one year (365 days) from the date of refund request

The student returns all course materials and any auxiliary course materials sent to them by AGI

If all of these conditions have been met, the student will reach out to their Student Advisor to begin the refund process.

If the student requests a refund and withdraws from the American Gunsmithing Institute courses that they enrolled in, they will be prohibited from further enrollment unless the student appeals to the Director of Admissions. After the student submits the application, the Director of Admissions will review the application and determine if the student's appeal warrants readmission/reenrollment. If accepted back into the program, the formerly dropped student will be required to pay a $197 reenrollment fee. To contact the Director of Admissions the student will call 1-800-797-0867 for more information.

From the time of withdrawal all student access, testing, and any other privileges granted by the American Gunsmithing Institute will be revoked immediately, and the student will no longer be on the course path to becoming an AGI Certified Gunsmith.

- 'No Salary Information Reported' is the number of graduates for whom, after making reasonable attempts, the school was not able to obtain salary information.

Student's Right To Cancel

Student's Right To Cancel

A student may cancel their enrollment at any time. Requests to begin the cancellation and refund process must be made prior to the expiration of a 365-day term from date of enrollment.

The request to cancel their enrollment must be dated or postmarked prior to the expiration of the 365-day term. From the time of cancellation of the course, the student's course access is immediately terminated. Students who withdraw from the program will be ineligible for any testing or certification after the time of termination.

AGI provides for a full refund if the student has demonstrated that they have studied the course and attests that the Gunsmithing Course content does not equip them with the Design, Function, and Repair knowledge to become a Certified Gunsmith and is subject to the following conditions:

Requests to begin the cancellation and refund process must be made prior to the expiration of a 365-day term from date of enrollment. The request must be dated or postmarked prior to the expiration of the 365-day term.

The Cancellation process begins on the date the written or emailed notice of cancellation is received by this institute at 351 Second Street, Napa CA 94559. Refunds will be paid within 30 days of cancellation unless the cancellation occurs after the institution has mailed the first lesson and materials but prior to your receipt of those documents. In such cases the institution shall make the refund within 30 days after receipt of the returned course materials. This Institution shall transmit all lessons and other materials to the student if the student (a) has fully paid for the educational program; and (b) after having received the first lesson and initial materials, requests in writing that all of the material be sent. If the institution transmits the balance of the material as the student requests, the institution shall remain obligated to provide the other educational services it agreed to provide, such as responses to student inquiries, student and faculty interaction, and evaluation and comment on lessons submitted by the student.

In the event the student requests a refund, all of the following conditions must be met:

The student has not passed their first test within the course material

The student has not consumed more than 10% of the course material

The student purchased or enrolled in the course less than one year (365 days) from the date of refund request

If all of these conditions have been met, the student will reach out to their Student Advisor to begin the refund process.

For online delivered course programs any course materials that were physically provided to the student up until the time of withdrawal will remain the property of the student. From the time of withdrawal all student access, testing, and any other privileges granted by the American Gunsmithing Institute will be revoked immediately, and the student will no longer be on the course path to becoming an AGI Certified Gunsmith.

Student's Right To Cancel

Student's Right To Cancel

A student may cancel their enrollment at any time. Requests to begin the cancellation and refund process must be made prior to the expiration of a 365-day term from date of enrollment. See Section F – Withdrawal and Refund Policy for complete details.

The request to cancel their enrollment must be dated or postmarked prior to the expiration of the 365-day term. From the time of cancellation of the course, the student's course access is immediately terminated. Students who withdraw from the program will be ineligible for any testing or certification after the time of termination.

AGI provides for a full refund if the student has demonstrated that they have studied the course and attests that the Gunsmithing Course content does not equip them with the Design, Function, and Repair knowledge to become a Certified Gunsmith and is subject to the following conditions:

Requests to begin the cancellation and refund process must be made prior to the expiration of a 365-day term from date of enrollment. The request must be dated or postmarked prior to the expiration of the 365-day term.

The Cancellation process begins on the date the written or emailed notice of cancellation is received by this institute at 351 Second Street, Napa CA 94559. Refunds will be paid within 30 days of cancellation unless the cancellation occurs after the institution has mailed the first lesson and materials but prior to your receipt of those documents. In such cases the institution shall make the refund within 30 days after receipt of the returned course materials. This Institution shall transmit all lessons and other materials to the student if the student (a) has fully paid for the educational program; and (b) after having received the first lesson and initial materials, requests in writing that all of the material be sent. If the institution transmits the balance of the material as the student requests, the institution shall remain obligated to provide the other educational services it agreed to provide, such as responses to student inquiries, student and faculty interaction, and evaluation and comment on lessons submitted by the student.

In the event the student requests a refund, all of the following conditions must be met:

The student has not passed their first test within the course material

The student purchased or enrolled in the course less than one year (365 days) from the date of refund request

The student returns all course materials and any auxiliary course materials sent to them by AGI

If all of these conditions have been met, the student will reach out to their Student Advisor to begin the refund process.

If the student requests a refund and withdraws from the American Gunsmithing Institute courses that they enrolled in, they will be prohibited from further enrollment unless the student appeals to the Director of Admissions. After the student submits the application, the Director of Admissions will review the application and determine if the student's appeal warrants readmission/reenrollment. If accepted back into the program, the formerly dropped student will be required to pay a $197 reenrollment fee. To contact the Director of Admissions the student will call 1-800-797-0867 for more information.

From the time of withdrawal all student access, testing, and any other privileges granted by the American Gunsmithing Institute will be revoked immediately, and the student will no longer be on the course path to becoming an AGI Certified Gunsmith.

- 'On-time Completion Rate' is the number of on-time graduates divided by the number of students available for graduation.
- '150% Graduates' is the number of students who completed the program within 150% of the program length (includes on-time graduates).
- '150% Completion Rate' is the number of students who completed the program in the reported calendar year within 150% of the published program length, including on-time graduates, divided by the number of students available for graduation.
- 'Graduates Available for Employment' means the number of graduates minus the number of graduates unavailable for employment.
- 'Graduates Unavailable for Employment' means the graduates who, after graduation, die, become incarcerated, are called to active military duty, are international students that leave the United States or do not have a visa allowing employment in the United States, or are continuing their education in an accredited or bureau-approved postsecondary institution.

Definitions

- 'Graduates Employed in the Field' means graduates who beginning within six months after a student completes the applicable educational program are gainfully employed, whose employment has been reported, and for whom the institution has documented verification of employment. For occupations for which the state requires passing an examination, the six months period begins after the announcement of the examination results for the first examination available after a student completes an applicable educational program.
- 'Placement Rate Employed in the Field' is calculated by dividing the number of graduates gainfully employed in the field by the number of graduates available for employment.
- 'Number of Graduates Taking Exam' is the number of graduates who took the first available exam in the reported calendar year.
- 'First Available Exam Date' is the date for the first available exam after a student completed a program.
- 'Passage Rate' is calculated by dividing the number of graduates who passed the exam by the number of graduates who took the reported licensing exam.
- 'Number Who Passed First Available Exam' is the number of graduates who took and passed the first available licensing exam after completing the program.
- 'Salary' is as reported by graduate or graduate's employer.
- 'No Salary Information Reported' is the number of graduates for whom, after making reasonable attempts, the school was not able to obtain salary information.

Student's Right To Cancel

Student's Right To Cancel

A student may cancel their enrollment at any time. Requests to begin the cancellation and refund process must be made prior to the expiration of a 365-day term from date of enrollment. See Section F – Withdrawal and Refund Policy for complete details. The request to cancel their enrollment must be dated or postmarked prior to the expiration of the 365-day term. From the time of cancellation of the course, the student's course access is immediately terminated. Students who withdraw from the program will be ineligible for any testing or certification after the time of termination.

AGI provides for a full refund if the student has demonstrated that they have studied the course and attests that the Gunsmithing Course content does not equip them with the Design, Function, and Repair knowledge to become a Certified Gunsmith and is subject to the following conditions:

Requests to begin the cancellation and refund process must be made prior to the expiration of a 365-day term from date of enrollment. The request must be dated or postmarked prior to the expiration of the 365-day term.

The Cancellation process begins on the date the written or emailed notice of cancellation is received by this institute at 351 Second Street, Napa CA 94559. Refunds will be paid within 30 days of cancellation unless the cancellation occurs after the institution has mailed the first lesson and materials but prior to your receipt of those documents. In such cases the institution shall make the refund within 30 days after receipt of the returned course materials. This Institution shall transmit all lessons and other materials to the student if the student (a) has fully paid for the educational program; and (b) after having received the first lesson and initial materials, requests in writing that all of the material be sent. If the institution transmits the balance of the material as the student requests, the institution shall remain obligated to provide the other educational services it agreed to provide, such as responses to student inquiries, student and faculty interaction, and evaluation and comment on lessons submitted by the student.

In the event the student requests a refund, all of the following conditions must be met:

The student has not passed their first test within the course material

The student purchased or enrolled in the course less than one year (365 days) from the date of refund request

The student returns all course materials and any auxiliary course materials sent to them by AGI

If all of these conditions have been met, the student will reach out to their Student Advisor to begin the refund process.

If the student requests a refund and withdraws from the American Gunsmithing Institute courses that they enrolled in, they will be prohibited from further enrollment unless the student appeals to the Director of Admissions. After the student submits the application, the Director of Admissions will review the application and determine if the student's appeal warrants readmission/reenrollment. If accepted back into the program, the formerly dropped student will be required to pay a $197 reenrollment fee. To contact the Director of Admissions the student will call 1-800-797-0867 for more information.

From the time of withdrawal all student access, testing, and any other privileges granted by the American Gunsmithing Institute will be revoked immediately, and the student will no longer be on the course path to becoming an AGI Certified Gunsmith.

- 'Graduates Employed in the Field' means graduates who beginning within six months after a student completes the applicable educational program are gainfully employed, whose employment has been reported, and for whom the institution has documented verification of employment. For occupations for which the state requires passing an examination, the six months period begins after the announcement of the examination results for the first examination available after a student completes an applicable educational program.
- 'Placement Rate Employed in the Field' is calculated by dividing the number of graduates gainfully employed in the field by the number of graduates available for employment.
- 'Number of Graduates Taking Exam' is the number of graduates who took the first available exam in the reported calendar year.
- 'First Available Exam Date' is the date for the first available exam after a student completed a program.
- 'Passage Rate' is calculated by dividing the number of graduates who passed the exam by the number of graduates who took the reported licensing exam.
- 'Number Who Passed First Available Exam' is the number of graduates who took and passed the first available licensing exam after completing the program.
- 'Salary' is as reported by graduate or graduate's employer.
- 'No Salary Information Reported' is the number of graduates for whom, after making reasonable attempts, the school was not able to obtain salary information.

Student's Right To Cancel

Student's Right To Cancel

A student may cancel their enrollment at any time. Requests to begin the cancellation and refund process must be made prior to the expiration of a 365-day term from date of enrollment. See Section F – Withdrawal and Refund Policy for complete details.

The request to cancel their enrollment must be dated or postmarked prior to the expiration of the 365-day term. From the time of cancellation of the course, the student's course access is immediately terminated. Students who withdraw from the program will be ineligible for any testing or certification after the time of termination.

AGI provides for a full refund if the student has demonstrated that they have studied the course and attests that the Gunsmithing Course content does not equip them with the Design, Function, and Repair knowledge to become a Certified Gunsmith and is subject to the following conditions:

Requests to begin the cancellation and refund process must be made prior to the expiration of a 365-day term from date of enrollment. The request must be dated or postmarked prior to the expiration of the 365-day term.

The Cancellation process begins on the date the written or emailed notice of cancellation is received by this institute at 351 Second Street, Napa CA 94559. Refunds will be paid within 30 days of cancellation unless the cancellation occurs after the institution has mailed the first lesson and materials but prior to your receipt of those documents. In such cases the institution shall make the refund within 30 days after receipt of the returned course materials. This Institution shall transmit all lessons and other materials to the student if the student (a) has fully paid for the educational program; and (b) after having received the first lesson and initial materials, requests in writing that all of the material be sent. If the institution transmits the balance of the material as the student requests, the institution shall remain obligated to provide the other educational services it agreed to provide, such as responses to student inquiries, student and faculty interaction, and evaluation and comment on lessons submitted by the student.

In the event the student requests a refund, all of the following conditions must be met:

The student has not passed their first test within the course material

The student purchased or enrolled in the course less than one year (365 days) from the date of refund request

The student returns all course materials and any auxiliary course materials sent to them by AGI
If all of these conditions have been met, the student will reach out to their Student Advisor to begin the refund process.

If the student requests a refund and withdraws from the American Gunsmithing Institute courses that they enrolled in, they will be prohibited from further enrollment unless the student appeals to the Director of Admissions. After the student submits the application, the Director of Admissions will review the application and determine if the student's appeal warrants readmission/reenrollment. If accepted back into the program, the formerly dropped student will be required to pay a $197 reenrollment fee. To contact the Director of Admissions the student will call 1-800-797-0867 for more information.

From the time of withdrawal all student access, testing, and any other privileges granted by the American Gunsmithing Institute will be revoked immediately, and the student will no longer be on the course path to becoming an AGI Certified Gunsmith.

Student's Right To Cancel

Student's Right To Cancel

A student may cancel their enrollment at any time. Requests to begin the cancellation and refund process must be made prior to the expiration of a 365-day term from date of enrollment.

The request to cancel their enrollment must be dated or postmarked prior to the expiration of the 365-day term. From the time of cancellation of the course, the student's course access is immediately terminated. Students who withdraw from the program will be ineligible for any testing or certification after the time of termination.

AGI provides for a full refund if the student has demonstrated that they have studied the course and attests that the Gunsmithing Course content does not equip them with the Design, Function, and Repair knowledge to become a Certified Gunsmith and is subject to the following conditions:

Requests to begin the cancellation and refund process must be made prior to the expiration of a 365-day term from date of enrollment. The request must be dated or postmarked prior to the expiration of the 365-day term.

The Cancellation process begins on the date the written or emailed notice of cancellation is received by this institute at 351 Second Street, Napa CA 94559. Refunds will be paid within 30 days of cancellation unless the cancellation occurs after the institution has mailed the first lesson and materials but prior to your receipt of those documents. In such cases the institution shall make the refund within 30 days after receipt of the returned course materials. This Institution shall transmit all lessons and other materials to the student if the student (a) has fully paid for the educational program; and (b) after having received the first lesson and initial materials, requests in writing that all of the material be sent. If the institution transmits the balance of the material as the student requests, the institution shall remain obligated to provide the other educational services it agreed to provide, such as responses to student inquiries, student and faculty interaction, and evaluation and comment on lessons submitted by the student.

In the event the student requests a refund, all of the following conditions must be met:
The student has not passed their first test within the course material
The student has not consumed more than 10% of the course material
The student purchased or enrolled in the course less than one year (365 days) from the date of refund request

If all of these conditions have been met, the student will reach out to their Student Advisor to begin the refund process.
For online delivered course programs any course materials that were physically provided to the student up until the time of withdrawal will remain the property of the student. From the time of withdrawal all student access, testing, and any other privileges granted by the American Gunsmithing Institute will be revoked immediately, and the student will no longer be on the course path to becoming an AGI Certified Gunsmith.

- 'On-time Completion Rate' is the number of on-time graduates divided by the number of students available for graduation.
- '150% Graduates' is the number of students who completed the program within 150% of the program length (includes on-time graduates).
- '150% Completion Rate' is the number of students who completed the program in the reported calendar year within 150% of the published program length, including on-time graduates, divided by the number of students available for graduation.
- 'Graduates Available for Employment' means the number of graduates minus the number of graduates unavailable for employment.
- 'Graduates Unavailable for Employment' means the graduates who, after graduation, die, become incarcerated, are called to active military duty, are international students that leave the United States or do not have a visa allowing employment in the United States, or are continuing their education in an accredited or bureau-approved postsecondary institution.

Definitions

- 'Graduates Employed in the Field' means graduates who beginning within six months after a student completes the applicable educational program are gainfully employed, whose employment has been reported, and for whom the institution has documented verification of employment. For occupations for which the state requires passing an examination, the six months period begins after the announcement of the examination results for the first examination available after a student completes an applicable educational program.
- 'Placement Rate Employed in the Field' is calculated by dividing the number of graduates gainfully employed in the field by the number of graduates available for employment.
- 'Number of Graduates Taking Exam' is the number of graduates who took the first available exam in the reported calendar year.
- 'First Available Exam Date' is the date for the first available exam after a student completed a program.
- 'Passage Rate' is calculated by dividing the number of graduates who passed the exam by the number of graduates who took the reported licensing exam.
- 'Number Who Passed First Available Exam' is the number of graduates who took and passed the first available licensing exam after completing the program.
- 'Salary' is as reported by graduate or graduate's employer.
- 'No Salary Information Reported' is the number of graduates for whom, after making reasonable attempts, the school was not able to obtain salary information.

Student's Right To Cancel

Student's Right To Cancel

A student may cancel their enrollment at any time. Requests to begin the cancellation and refund process must be made prior to the expiration of a 365-day term from date of enrollment. See Section F – Withdrawal and Refund Policy for complete details.

The request to cancel their enrollment must be dated or postmarked prior to the expiration of the 365-day term. From the time of cancellation of the course, the student's course access is immediately terminated. Students who withdraw from the program will be ineligible for any testing or certification after the time of termination.

AGI provides for a full refund if the student has demonstrated that they have studied the course and attests that the Gunsmithing Course content does not equip them with the Design, Function, and Repair knowledge to become a Certified Gunsmith and is subject to the following conditions:

Requests to begin the cancellation and refund process must be made prior to the expiration of a 365-day term from date of enrollment. The request must be dated or postmarked prior to the expiration of the 365-day term.

The Cancellation process begins on the date the written or emailed notice of cancellation is received by this institute at 351 Second Street, Napa CA 94559. Refunds will be paid within 30 days of cancellation unless the cancellation occurs after the institution has mailed the first lesson and materials but prior to your receipt of those documents. In such cases the institution shall make the refund within 30 days after receipt of the returned course materials. This Institution shall transmit all lessons and other materials to the student if the student (a) has fully paid for the educational program; and (b) after having received the first lesson and initial materials, requests in writing that all of the material be sent. If the institution transmits the balance of the material as the student requests, the institution shall remain obligated to provide the other educational services it agreed to provide, such as responses to student inquiries, student and faculty interaction, and evaluation and comment on lessons submitted by the student.

In the event the student requests a refund, all of the following conditions must be met:

The student has not passed their first test within the course material

The student purchased or enrolled in the course less than one year (365 days) from the date of refund request

The student returns all course materials and any auxiliary course materials sent to them by AGI

If all of these conditions have been met, the student will reach out to their Student Advisor to begin the refund process.

If the student requests a refund and withdraws from the American Gunsmithing Institute courses that they enrolled in, they will be prohibited from further enrollment unless the student appeals to the Director of Admissions. After the student submits the application, the Director of Admissions will review the application and determine if the student's appeal warrants readmission/reenrollment. If accepted back into the program, the formerly dropped student will be required to pay a $197 reenrollment fee. To contact the Director of Admissions the student will call 1-800-797-0867 for more information.

From the time of withdrawal all student access, testing, and any other privileges granted by the American Gunsmithing Institute will be revoked immediately, and the student will no longer be on the course path to becoming an AGI Certified Gunsmith.

Student's Right To Cancel

Student's Right To Cancel

A student may cancel their enrollment at any time. Requests to begin the cancellation and refund process must be made prior to the expiration of a 365-day term from date of enrollment.

The request to cancel their enrollment must be dated or postmarked prior to the expiration of the 365-day term. From the time of cancellation of the course, the student's course access is immediately terminated. Students who withdraw from the program will be ineligible for any testing or certification after the time of termination.

AGI provides for a full refund if the student has demonstrated that they have studied the course and attests that the Gunsmithing Course content does not equip them with the Design, Function, and Repair knowledge to become a Certified Gunsmith and is subject to the following conditions:

Requests to begin the cancellation and refund process must be made prior to the expiration of a 365-day term from date of enrollment. The request must be dated or postmarked prior to the expiration of the 365-day term.

The Cancellation process begins on the date the written or emailed notice of cancellation is received by this institute at 351 Second Street, Napa CA 94559. Refunds will be paid within 30 days of cancellation unless the cancellation occurs after the institution has mailed the first lesson and materials but prior to your receipt of those documents. In such cases the institution shall make the refund within 30 days after receipt of the returned course materials. This Institution shall transmit all lessons and other materials to the student if the student (a) has fully paid for the educational program; and (b) after having received the first lesson and initial materials, requests in writing that all of the material be sent. If the institution transmits the balance of the material as the student requests, the institution shall remain obligated to provide the other educational services it agreed to provide, such as responses to student inquiries, student and faculty interaction, and evaluation and comment on lessons submitted by the student.

In the event the student requests a refund, all of the following conditions must be met:

The student has not passed their first test within the course material

The student has not consumed more than 10% of the course material

The student purchased or enrolled in the course less than one year (365 days) from the date of refund request

If all of these conditions have been met, the student will reach out to their Student Advisor to begin the refund process.

For online delivered course programs any course materials that were physically provided to the student up until the time of withdrawal will remain the property of the student. From the time of withdrawal all student access, testing, and any other privileges granted by the American Gunsmithing Institute will be revoked immediately, and the student will no longer be on the course path to becoming an AGI Certified Gunsmith.
